

Former Resident Is Wed in Des Moines

DES MOINES — Beverly Jean Hirl and Wayne Ivan Hughes, were united in marriage Aug. 21 at the Douglas Avenue Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Norman D. Frerking officiated at the double ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hirl of Des Moines, formerly of Spencer, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hughes Des Moines, are parents of the couple.

Lime green bows marked the aisles of the church and two baskets of yellow and white gladioli decorated the altar.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Zada Burrell, Carlisle, sang "At Dawning", "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony, and "Bless This House" at the close. Mrs. Don Munzenmaier, organist, played the processional and recessional.

Altar candelabra were lighted by Brian Berning, son of S-Sgt. and Mrs. Louis Berning of Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta gown styled with Mandarin collar, empire waist, long sleeves gathered to six inch cuffs and a bouffant floor length skirt which ended in a short train. Bands of four inch lace and pearls trimmed the skirt and bodice. A short white tulle veil was fastened to a six inch head band of lace and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white spider mums and yellow roses.

Patricia Hirl was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lora VanDusseldorp, Pella, and Mrs. Linda VandeBert, Des Moines, friends of the bride. All wore identical floor length dresses of lime green chiffon over taffeta. The empire waists were trimmed with white lace bands ending in a row and streamers in the back. Long sleeves were bouffant from elbow to wrist and trimmed with white lace. They wore matching green shoes and headbands of yellow roses. Each carried a single yellow rose.

Lori Haynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Haynes of Des Moines, was the flower girl. She wore a white crepe floor length dress similar to the bridesmaids but styled with short puffed sleeves. She wore a headband of yellow rosebuds and carried a white wicker basket with yellow beige screen silk, long sleeved street length dress designed with a hand-painted panel in rose and silver. Her accessories were beige. Mrs. Hughes chose a mint green double knit short sleeved street length dress and white accessories. Their corsages were made of a white orchid and stephanotis.

MRS. WAYNE HUGHES

Mrs. John Simonson, Duncombe, the bride's grandmother and Mrs. Iva Boyce, Des Moines, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore yellow rose corsages.

S-Sgt. and Mrs. Louis Berning were hosts at the reception for the bride, cut and served the four tier cake which was decorated in yellow and white with garland of greens and topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Averil Elizondo, Glenwood, aunt of the bridegroom, poured. Guests were served by Peggy Maumma and Mrs. Larry Smith, Des Moines, Sharon Schroeder, Wilton Junction and Margaret Van Dusseldorp, Pella. They wore mint green aprons.

All who assisted at the reception wore white spider mum corsages with green ribbons.

The bride graduated from Des Moines Tech High School and Area

... the procession and recessional.

Altar candelabra were lighted by Brian Berning, son of S-Sgt. and Mrs. Louis Berning of Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta gown styled with Mandarin collar, empire waist, long sleeves gathered to six inch cuffs and a bouffant floor length skirt which ended in a short train. Bands of four inch lace and pearls trimmed the skirt and bodice. A short white tulle veil was fastened to a six inch head band of lace and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white spider mums and yellow roses.

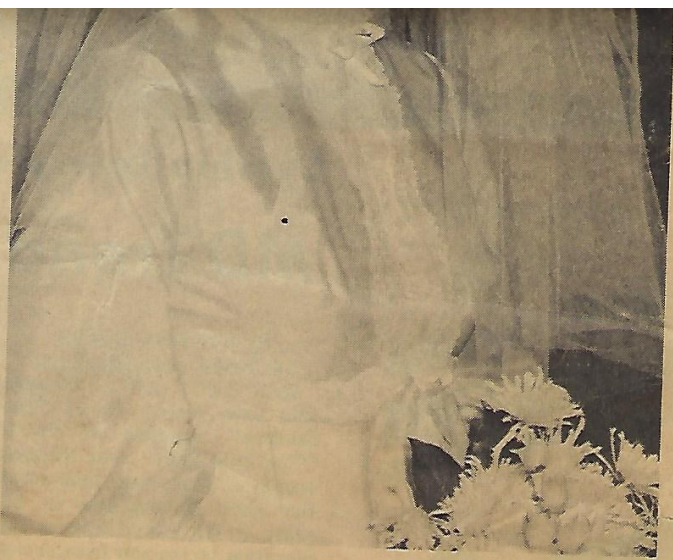

Patricia Hirl was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lora VanDusseldorp, Pella, and Mrs. Linda VandeBert, Des Moines, friends of the bride. All wore identical floor length dresses of lime green chiffon over taffeta. The empire waists were trimmed with white lace bands ending in a row and streamers in the back. Long sleeves were bouffant from elbow to wrist and trimmed with white lace. They wore matching green shoes and headbands of yellow roses. Each carried a single yellow rose.

Lori Haynes, daughter of Mr and Mrs. R. I. Haynes of Des Moines, was the flower girl. She wore a white crepe floor length dress similar to the bridesmaids but styled with short puffed sleeves. She wore a headband of yellow rosebuds and carried a white wicker basket with yellow rose petals.

Gary Hughes was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Wayne Lamb and Evon Potratz, Des Moines, friends of the bridegroom. Ushers were the bride's brother, Richard Hirl, and Paul Hughes, brother of the bridegroom. All wore black tuxedos.

Paul Jensen, son of Mr and Mrs. Richard Jensen of Des Moines, was the ring bearer. He wore a black tuxedo and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride's mother wore a

MRS. WAYNE HUGHES

beige screen silk, long sleeved street length dress designed with a hand-painted panel in rose and silver. Her accessories were beige. Mrs. Hughes chose a mint green double knit short sleeved street length dress and white accessories. Their corsages were made of a white orchid and stephanotis.

Mrs. John Simonson, Duncombe, the bride's grandmother and Mrs. Iva Boyce, Des Moines, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore yellow rose corsages.

S-Sgt. and Mrs. Louis Berning were hosts at the reception for 125 guests at Hoyt Sherman Place, Des Moines.

Mary Jane Beebee, Des Moines, served punch. Mrs. Larry Matthews (formerly Nancy Paul of Spencer) Ankeny, was in charge of the guest book. Gifts were opened by Claudia Hoepfner, Des Moines, and Jaci McCormack, Marshalltown.

Mrs. Paul Yegge and Mrs. John Meinhardt, Davenport, aunts of the bride, cut and served the four tier cake which was decorated in yellow and white with garland of greens and topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Averil Elizondo, Glenwood, aunt of the bridegroom, poured. Guests were served by Peggy Maumma and Mrs. Larry Smith, Des Moines, Sharon Schroeder, Wilton Junction and Margaret Van Dusedorp, Pella. They wore mint green aprons.

All who assisted at the reception wore white spider mum corsages with green ribbons.

The bride graduated from Des Moines Tech High School and Area XI College with honors. The past year she taught pre-school at Dell Nursery School, Des Moines. Her husband graduated with honors from Des Moines Tech High School and is attending Iowa State University, Ames, where he is majoring in electrical engineering.

For their wedding trip to Minnesota, the bride wore a brown cape ensemble with brown accessories and yellow rose corsage. They are living in Ames.

